Reusable Color Palette & Brand Identity

REUSABLE COLOR PALETTE

A simple, friendly palette built for consistent use across the website, app, social media, presentations, and marketing.

Color	HEX	Role	Use
	#2F6B4F	Primary	Logo, headings, navigation, primary buttons
	#E98B45	Accent	Highlights, secondary actions, active states
	#FFFFFF	Base	Primary background, cards, clean space
	#FAF9F6	Base	Soft page sections and editorial layouts
	#303030	Text	Body copy and dark UI elements
	#EAF2ED	Support	Subtle surfaces, tags, trust-oriented states
	#FBE8DD	Support	Subtle highlights and notifications

Suggested balance: Green 50% • White/Warm White 35% • Charcoal 10% • Orange 5%

Keep orange as an accent rather than a competing primary color.

BRAND IDENTITY

Brand idea: Access without ownership.

Core concept: A marketplace that puts underused things back into circulation by connecting owners with people who need them temporarily.

Personality: Friendly • Trustworthy • Practical • Modern • Energetic

Positioning: A simple, human marketplace for renting useful things from people who already own them.

Visual language: Clean geometry, circular movement, generous whitespace, approachable colors, and a clear two-color mark.

Logo behavior: Forest Green is dominant; Fresh Orange highlights the secondary moving/accent element.

Typography: Satoshi, Plus Jakarta Sans, Inter, or a similar modern sans-serif. Headlines: SemiBold/Bold. Body: Regular/Medium.

Photography: Real people, real objects, natural environments, bright and honest imagery. Avoid overly luxurious or corporate stock photography.

Tone of voice: Clear, confident, friendly, direct, and human. Avoid jargon and exaggerated claims.

Key message: Why buy something you'll only use a few times when you can rent it from someone who already owns it?
